Failure to remit payment to the Organizer of the above amounts by the due dates shall constitute automatic termination of the Contract. The Organizer shall communicate the termination in writing to the Traveler or the Travel agent.

The balance is considered paid when the Organizer receives the sums.

7. MODIFICATION OR CANCELLATION OF THE TRAVEL SERVICES PACKAGE

7.1 BY THE ORGANIZER BEFORE DEPARTURE

Before departure, the Organizer may modify one or more services of the travel package and shall immediately notify the Traveler in writing, indicating the type of change.

Should the Organizer cancel the travel services package before departure for any reason, except due to the Traveler's fault, it shall reimburse the Traveler the amounts paid for the travel package purchase. The Traveler is entitled to be compensated for the non-execution of the Contract within the limits of the law. Should the Organizer cancel the travel package because the previously informed minimum number of participants is not met, no compensation is due. No compensation is due should the Organizer cancel for force majeure and unforeseeable circumstances. The Organizer shall refund only the amounts received within 14 working days from the cancellation.

7.2 BY THE ORGANIZER AFTER DEPARTURE

Should the Organizer not be able to supply an essential part of the services included in the travel service package for any reason (except due to the Traveler's fault), alternative solutions shall be provided to the Traveler at no extra charge. If the value of the supplied services is lower than the value of the previously agreed services, the difference shall be refunded.

7.3 BY THE TRAVELER BEFORE DEPARTURE

The Traveler may withdraw from the Contract, without penalties, in the following cases: price increase greater than 8%; significant modification of one or more elements of the Contract that can be objectively configured as fundamental for the travel package considered as a whole and proposed by the Organizer after the conclusion of the Contract itself but before departure.

The Traveler withdrawing from the Contract before departure shall be liable for cancellation penalties based on the days the Organizer is notified of the cancellation and the start of the travel services package. The following cancellation penalties apply:

- 30% of the total travel package price for cancellations before 60 days
- 60% of the total travel package price for cancellations between 46 and 59 days
- 100% of the total travel package price for cancellations less than 45 days

The cancellation penalties apply if the Traveler cannot travel due to missing or irregular personal emigration documents. For pre-established groups, cancellation penalties shall be agreed upon on a case-by-case basis.

Purchase of tickets for special services, such as train tickets, entrance tickets, and event tickets, are non-changeable and nonrefundable once issued. Any changes will require a new purchase.

7.4 BY THE TRAVELER AFTER DEPARTURE

If the Traveler abandons the planned trip at any point during the arranged and planned itinerary dates, cancels individual services, or is a no-show, all and any rights to a refund of any used and unused portion of the travel service are forfeited.

Any changes or modifications to the travel service package are considered a new travel service booking and must be paid by the Traveler at confirmation.

8. SUBSTITUTIONS/NAME CHANGES

The Traveler may request to be replaced by another Traveler provided that the Organizer is informed in writing at least 20 days before departure. The transferee shall satisfy all the conditions for the use of the service (under Article 89 of the Italian Civil Code), particularly passports, visas, and health requirements. Any additional costs related to the substitution must be paid upon confirmation of the name change. The transferor and the transferee shall be jointly liable for the balance payment.

9. TRAVELER OBLIGATIONS

The Traveler shall be responsible for complying with passport, visa, and health requirements. It is recommended that Travelers check with the Department of State or similar for the latest passport, visa, health, and travel requirements. The Traveler shall be responsible for ensuring all names provided on the Contract match the Traveler's passport name. Any name variations may require re-ticketing/re-booking at the Traveler's expense.

The Traveler shall also inform the Organizer in writing, at the time of booking, of any particular personal requests or needs that may be the subject of specific agreements on travel arrangements, provided it can be executed. The Traveler shall always be responsible for informing the Intermediary and the Organizer of any special needs or conditions (pregnancy, food intolerances, disability, etc.) and specifying the request for related personalized services.

The Traveler shall be liable for any damages suffered by the Organizer due to the inability to follow the above obligations set forth. The Traveler must provide the Organizer with all the known documents, information, and elements necessary in exercising the rights of the Organizer towards third parties responsible.

10. LIMITS OF RESPONSIBILITY

The Organizer shall be liable for damages caused to the Traveler as a result of the total or partial non-performance of the services contractually due, whether carried out by the Organizer personally or by the third-party service provider, unless the Organizer proves the event was the result of the Traveler's action (including initiatives taken independently in the course of the performance of the tourist services) or by unforeseeable or unavoidable circumstances unrelated to the provision of the services provided for in the Contract, force majeure, or circumstances that the Organizer could not, based on professional diligence, reasonably foresee or resolve. The Intermediary with whom the booking of the tourist package has been made is not responsible for the obligations relating to the organization and execution of the travel package but is only responsible for the obligations arising from its role as an intermediary and for the execution of the mandate given by the Traveler, as explicitly provided for by art. 50 of the Italian Tourism Code, including the guarantee obligations in art. 47.

According to art. 43 and 46 of the Italian Tourism Code, compensation and time limits are governed by the provisions thereof and, in any case, within the limits established by the International Conventions governing services object of the travel package as well as by articles 1783 and 1784 of the Italian Civil Code.

11. TRAVEL INSURANCE

The Organizer strongly advises the Traveler to underwrite a travel and cancellation insurance policy at the time of booking to cover costs arising from package cancellation, accidents and/or illnesses, repatriation, loss and/or damage of baggage, and other related travel issues. The rights arising from insurance contracts must be exercised by the Traveler directly against the contracting insurance companies under the conditions and in the manner provided by the policy.

12. OBLIGATION OF ASSISTANCE

The Organizer must assist the Traveler, based on a professional diligence principle, solely concerning its obligations or by Contract or law. The Organizer and the Intermediary are exempt from their responsibilities (art. 13 and 14) when the unsuccessful or wrong execution of the Contract is caused by Traveler's fault, or there is an inevitable or unforeseeable third-party event, or act of God event.

13. COMPLAINTS AND CHARGES

Any failure in executing the Contract must be contested by the Traveler during the fruition of the travel package by promptly submitting a complaint so that the Organizer, its local representative, or the accompanying person may promptly remedy. Otherwise, compensation for damages will be reduced or excluded by Art. 1227 Italia Civil Code. The Traveler must also, under penalty of forfeiture, submit a complaint by sending a registered mail with a return receipt, or other means that guarantees proof of receipt, to the Organizer or Intermediary no later than ten working days from the date of return to the place of departure.

ADDENDUM GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT FOR THE SALE OF INDIVIDUAL TOURIST SERVICES

A) REGULATORY PROVISIONS

Contracts for transport services only, accommodation service only, or any other separate tourist service, which cannot be considered a negotiation of a travel organization or travel package, do not enjoy the same protections provided for Travelers under the European Directive 2015/2302 unless otherwise indicated in the Contract by the Organizer. The Intermediary who procures a single travel service for a third party is required to issue the Traveler documents relating to the service showing the amount paid for the service and cannot be considered a travel Organizer.

B) INFORMATIVA PRIVACY RIDOTTA

Traveler is informed that their data, the provision necessary to allow the conclusion and execution of the travel contract, shall be processed manually and/or electronically in compliance with current legislation. Any refusal shall make completing and executing the Contract impossible. The rights are provided for by current legislation.
